1. Educational Goals for the Course: Classroom management has many facets, including classroom organization, scheduling, handling discipline issues, and managing the dynamic relationship between teachers and students. Teachers often cite it as their number one challenge. This course investigates how an engaging curriculum can help eliminate most classroom management challenges. Participants will explore why it’s important to give students a voice in the classroom, along with the strategies for doing so. In addition, they will examine several classroom management models as well as opportunities to adapt them for individual situations.

2. Instructional Learning Objectives:
Participants will:
- Recognize the link between engaging lessons and appropriate classroom behavior.
- Investigate different classroom management models.
- Explore existing and evolving beliefs about classroom management.
- Create a classroom management action plan.

3. Course Requirements: This course is available only to those who have registered with and purchased the course from ASCD (www.ascd.org, then select PD Online Courses)
Participants will be required to:
- Complete all lessons.
- Submit a reflection paper, detailing what was learned and how the knowledge will be applied.
- Submit reflection paper in a Word document attachment to:
