Course Syllabus

Course Title: ASCD - Embracing Diversity: Global Education

Instructor: Barbara Rainey

1. Educational Goals for the Course: This course provides an introduction to teaching using a global perspective. The course features Merry Merryfield, professor of social studies and global education at Ohio State University, and Tim Dove, social studies teacher at McCord Middle School in Worthington, Ohio. Both Merryfield and Dove bring a wealth of classroom, personal, and professional experiences to teaching with a global perspective. Participants will explore elements of global education, observe how others have incorporated global education into their classrooms or schools, critique classroom-tested lesson plans and units, infuse global education into a lesson, unit, or theme already being taught in the classroom, and explore teaching strategies.

2. Instructional Learning Objectives:
   - Educators will:
     - Reflect on personal worldviews.
     - Explore differences between global and multicultural education.
     - Identify instructional strategies that encourage self-reflective students.
     - Consider how to help students develop multiple perspectives.
     - Identify next steps for infusing global education into teaching
