NOTE: Continuing Education courses are designed for professional development and do not normally count toward an academic degree.

1. Educational Goals for the Course: Curriculum should guide technology use, not the other way around. This course is designed for the educator who is familiar with and uses technology, but who understands that the use of technology in the classroom will need to change if teachers are to help all students become technologically literate. The lessons investigate what good technology use looks like in the school environment and reviews emerging technologies.

2. Instructional Learning Objectives:

   Participants will:
   - Examine how computing has fundamentally changed.
   - Investigate research-based teacher technology standards.
   - Review 21st century learning skills.

3. Course Requirements: This course is available only to those who have registered with and purchased the course from ASCD (www.ascd.org, then select PD Online Courses)

   Participants will be required to:
   - Complete all lessons.
   - Submit a reflection paper, detailing what was learned and how the knowledge will be applied.
   - Submit reflection paper in a Word document attachment to:
