

Description of Professional Development Course Credit:

Description of what is necessary for one professional development course credit:

A minimum of fifteen (15) faculty-directed, instructor-led, student instructional hours is required for each semester credit, with thirty (30) additional professional application hours of the course content is required beyond the class period.

1. A one-semester credit course must extend over a minimum of two (2) days (15+ hours total) with a required course application product (equal to 30 hours of course work);
2. A two-semester credit course must extend over a minimum of four (4) days (30+ hours) with a required course application product (equal to 60 hours of course work); and
3. A three-semester credit course must extend over five (5) days (45+ hours) with a required course application product (equal to 90 hours of course work).