Both Howard D. and Carol J. (Sornson) Bartlow attended Northwest Nazarene University. Howard graduated in 1968 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Engineering Physics. NNU had no nursing program at that time, so after her freshman year, Carol transferred to Seattle Pacific College. She also graduated in 1968 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing. Howard and Carol were married in 1972.

Howard has worked in radio frequency (RF) transistor electronics for more than thirty years. Carol has practiced nursing in ER, Maternity, Ear Nose & Throat, and taught a class of LPN students. Since the birth of their first child, Brian, Carol was a full-time mother to him and his sisters Debra and Rebecca. All three children have graduated from NNU and live in the Nampa area, as do Howard and Carol.

The commitment by Howard and Carol to put God first in their lives has been a significant blessing. They have appreciated the opportunity available for them and their children to attend a Christ-centered university and continue to participate as alumni class agents. The Bartlows also wish to support others who desire to attend Northwest Nazarene University and live responsibly for God.
