This scholarship has been established by Don and Darlene Bricknell, long-time supporters of Northwest Nazarene College. Although they have no children of their own, they have supported a number of foster children and have maintained a strong interest in students at NNC.

Don was born and reared in Chicago, where he attended Northern Baptist Seminary. Darlene was born in Iowa and she and Don spent time in Germany when he was serving in the U.S. Army. They moved west in 1960 and lived in Longview, Washington prior to moving to Nampa. Prior to their retirement, Don was an executive with the J.C. Penney Company and Darlene was an assistant manager at Idaho First National Bank. They now live in Sun City West, Arizona, enjoying their retirement years.
