Both Ray and Doris Maier were born and raised in the state of Washington. They were married in Spokane and have resided there for the last 53 years.

Ray served in World War II for three and one-half years. Upon his return to Spokane he established and operated his own radio and television business, Maier Radio and TV, from which he has retired. Doris worked for Seattle First National Bank after high school graduation. She is now retired.

Ray and Doris serve the Lord at the Pasadena Park Church of the Nazarene in Spokane. They have been involved with the choir, ushering and greeting, have served on the church board and as NWMS president and council member, been active in the Sunday school as teacher and secretary, and worked with the youth—encouraging, entertaining and loving them all. They have also participated in work and witness trips to Mexico, the Dominican Republic, and Alaska.

While neither Ray nor Doris attended college, they have always been interested in Northwest Nazarene University and its students. They pray for God’s continued blessing.
