Lois Wallis Malpass was born and raised in Sterling, Illinois. After attending one year at Bethany Nazarene College, Lois moved to Nampa, Idaho and then to Boise. She graduated from Boise State University in 1980 with a degree in Social Work and received her master's degree in Social Work from Eastern Washington University in 1992.

Bruce Malpass was born and grew up in Boise, Idaho. After graduating from Boise High School he attended Northwest Nazarene College for 1½ years. Bruce then worked for the railroad for several years in Southern Oregon before returning to Boise.

Bruce and Lois met at Boise First Church of the Nazarene in an adult Sunday school class and later married. They have two children, David and Julie, and six grandchildren. Julie attended two years of college and has a bookkeeping office in her home in Georgia. David, a graduate of NNC, played baseball as a student and is currently a professional scout for the Cleveland Indians Baseball Team.

Criteria for the Award

1. Recipients are to be students who meet general scholastic requirements and show potential for academic success and degree completion, have achieved a classification level of sophomore or greater, and are a social work major or a prospect for inter-collegiate baseball.

2. Financial need shall be a consideration in the awarding of this scholarship. Awards shall alternate between a baseball player or an undergraduate social work student. When the fund reaches $20,000, awards will be equally divided.

3. Recipients may receive the award in successive years, not to exceed three years.

4. Nominations for the baseball award are to be made through the athletic director and the Office of Financial Aid. Nominations for the social work award are to be made through the social work department chair and the Office of Financial Aid.

5. If the baseball or social work programs cease, the scholarship representative will amend the criteria for this scholarship.

A most satisfying way to honor a loved one or friend is to invest in a life yet to be lived. Gifts to NNU's Endowed Scholarship Program become a “helping hand” to students as they prepare for their vocations and for lives of service to others.

For more information, contact the Office of University Advancement, NNU 623 Holly St., Nampa, ID 83686. Phone (208) 467-8772.

Northwest Nazarene University admits students of any race, color, national or ethnic origin.