C.B. Mylander was born in Nebraska and Mae was born in Missouri. Prior to their marriage Mae was a school teacher and C.B. operated a farm in Northeastern Colorado. They had four children -- Thomas, Theodore, Helen and Charles -- when C.B. received a call to preach. He was ordained in 1939 and spent his entire ministry on the Colorado District, pastoring churches at Loveland, Greeley, Denver and Arvada. In addition, C.B. served as District Treasurer and a member of the Advisory Board. Mae also served as District Treasurer and District Missionary President. Two of their children, Helen and Charles, attended Northwest Nazarene College. C.B. died in 1970 and Mae in 1977.
