Wayne and Marjorie (Rapp) Pfost have long been supporters of NNC. Wayne came to Boise from Kansas in the early 1940s where he met and married Marjorie Rapp who was born and raised in Nampa. Five children were welcomed to this union. As successful business owners in the Boise area they enjoyed productive lives where their success and reputation reflected their faith and high moral values.

A strong belief in, and a desire to support higher education in a Christian environment, led to the creation of this scholarship. It is the Pfost’s desire to assist young adults to be well trained and ready to work and live a life honoring to Jesus Christ.
