Tim Power, only child of Rev. John and Maxine Power, was born in Fargo, North Dakota, where his parents were planting a Church of the Nazarene. When he was seven years of age he was killed in an accident. At that time his parents were pastoring a church in Wheatland, Missouri.

John, son of a Nazarene Pastor, grew up in New Mexico, attended Point Loma Nazarene College and Nazarene Theological Seminary. He and Maxine met in Northern California.

Following Tim's death John became a Chaplain at the Veteran's Administration Medical Center in Roseburg, Oregon, and Maxine was employed as an Accounts Payable Supervisor with Douglas County.
