Roy and Donna Robison are long time residents of Nampa, Idaho. Roy was born August 26, 1917, and came to the Treasure Valley as a teenager. Donna was born June 9, 1930, and graduated from Nampa High School. They were married March 9, 1962, in Marsing, Idaho, and for many years owned and operated a trucking business in Nampa. Donna was the office manager and bookkeeper, while Roy managed the business and drove truck.

The Robisons enjoyed the rural setting of the Treasure Valley where they raised five children, completed their working careers, invested themselves in their local church, and significantly supported Northwest Nazarene University. In March 1996 the Robisons established the Roy & Donna Robison Trust for the ultimate benefit of their local church and Northwest Nazarene University. They deeded land to the ten year trust that matured in 2006 to fund this scholarship. Due to the unprecedented growth in the area, the value of the land has appreciated to a price far beyond what the Robisons had dreamed or hoped. What began as a simple act of faith and response to God’s leading will provide scholarships to ministerial students at Northwest Nazarene University for years to come.
