The Princeton Church of the Nazarene
Breckner Memorial

The Princeton, Idaho, Church of the Nazarene has supported Northwest Nazarene University for many years. Numbers of young people from this local church, the Palouse Zone, and the Northwest District have attended NNU and are serving the Lord throughout the world as doctors, educators, attorneys, pastors, missionaries, businessmen and women, and a host of other professions. These professionals also fill vital roles as church board members and Sunday school teachers and in music ministry, pastoral roles, and congregational care. All credit their time at NNU with helping in the fulfillment of their dedication to God, the church, and their careers.

This memorial scholarship fund has been initiated by a generous bequest from Joe Breckner, a former member of the Princeton congregation. The fund, named the Breckner Memorial Scholarship, will be served through the Princeton Church of the Nazarene for use by the Northwest Nazarene University scholarship endowment fund.

Princeton Church of the Nazarene has chosen to use the Breckner funds as a seed for investment in the lives of students who wish to attend Northwest Nazarene University.
