Don Farrand was born in Dickinson, North Dakota in 1924. He and his family moved to Seattle, Washington in 1942. They joined First Church of the Nazarene under the leadership of Rev. and Mrs. E.H. Edwards. Don entered the service in the spring of 1943, served three years, then enrolled at Northwest Nazarene College. He graduated from NNC in 1950.

Dot Edwards was born in 1929 in Spokane, Washington. She first met Don during her parents’ pastorate in Seattle. The Edwards family moved to Malden, Massachusetts and, subsequently, moved to Boise, Idaho. Dot graduated from College High and met Don again when he entered NNC as a freshman.

Don and Dot were married in 1950 in Boise, Idaho when Don graduated from NNC. He graduated from Nazarene Theological Seminary in 1953. They took the pastorate of the Palo Alto Church of the Nazarene in May 1953 and were there for 19 years. Later they returned to the same church as associate pastors for five years. Dot was Director of Employee Relations and a Corporate Officer of Coherent Inc., in Palo Alto, having worked there over 22 years.

The Farrands have three children: Dan, Jody and Toby, who graduated from NNC, Sacramento State, and Stanford University, respectively.
