The James A. Feltar

SCHOLARSHIP

Mr. Feltar was a public school teacher and administrator in Washington State from 1920-1949. He received degrees in education from Washington College in Ellensburg, Washington, and Eastern Oregon College in La Grande, Oregon. He also attended the University of Washington in Seattle and the University of Idaho in Moscow.

James served on the NNU campus for 22 years, eight as principal of College High School and 14 as the Director of Student Training. He also served on the NNU Board of Regents for eight years. A member of the Northwest Association of School Personnel Administrators, in 1971 he received an Award of Appreciation for distinguished service in the field of education. The James A. Feltar Lecture Hall in the Wiley Learning Center at Northwest Nazarene University was named in his honor.

Former students and friends knew James as “Pop.” He was especially loved and admired by his three daughters, Bunny Dobbs Eichenberger (Marshall) of Sun City, AZ; May Brown (Gordon), who passed away in 2004; and Ruby Boyd (Harry) of Ontario, OR, all of whom attended NNU. “Pop” Feltar passed away on January 17, 1995, at the age of 98.
