Harold H. Griebel was born near Bellevue, Iowa where he grew up and attended school. For thirty-five years, Harold farmed near Bellevue. He also worked twelve years for a tractor equipment manufacturer in Dubuque, Iowa. In his later retirement years, Harold refinished furniture for friends and relatives.

Luella R. Griebel also grew up near Bellevue, Iowa. Luella and Harold were married in 1929. They worked together on their farm while also raising two daughters. Two of the Griebel’s granddaughters graduated from Northwest Nazarene College. In retirement years Luella assisted in the homes of elderly medical professionals in Dubuque, Iowa.

Harold and Luella were both extremely hard workers and lived by a code of doing the best they could each day with the talents God had given them.

Harold passed away on September 27, 1997, one month short of celebrating 68 years of marriage. Luella presently resides in their home in Dubuque.
